BIRDS CONNECT SEATTLE BYLAWS
Approved by the Board on March 11, 2023.

ARTICLE I - NAME

The name of the nonprofit corporation shall be BIRDS CONNECT SEATTLE, referred to herein as “the Organization.”

ARTICLE II – MISSION AND VALUES

Birds Connect Seattle advocates and organizes for cities where people and birds thrive.

Values

We are a community of passionate, talented, and unique individuals, and our service is Birds Connect Seattle’s most valuable resource. As a staff-run and volunteer-powered organization, we value:

Inspiration. Birds inspire and inform conservation in a unique and powerful way.

Interconnectedness. The health of birds and their habitats is tied to human health.

Equity and Inclusion. Equity and inclusion are necessary to achieve our mission.

Diversity. Diverse perspectives strengthen our understanding of birds, our community, and the environment.

Humility. There are infinite ways to experience and enjoy birds and nature respectfully.

Collaboration. We are most successful when we collaborate within and outside the organization.

Science. Our policies and programs must be informed by science.

ARTICLE III – MEMBERS

Section 1: Any person interested in the purposes of the Organization is eligible for membership. Membership is established by paying the membership dues to Birds Connect Seattle, which shall be set by the Board of Directors, and complying with the member Code of Conduct. A person’s membership can be suspended or terminated for failure to comply with the Code of Conduct and the values of Birds Connect Seattle by majority vote of the Board of Directors.

Section 2: Membership dues will be established by the Board of Directors. Membership shall be effective for one year from the date initial dues are paid and may be renewed at any time. If renewal dues are not paid within three (3) months of being due, that membership shall be terminated. Full payment of dues will reinstate the membership and establish a new anniversary and renewal date of one year from the date of reinstatement.
Section 3: Members of the Organization enjoy certain rights and privileges, but do not have voting rights. Membership shall not imply membership in the National Audubon Society and National Membership shall not imply Birds Connect Seattle membership.

ARTICLE IV – MEMBER MEETINGS

Section 1: The members’ Annual Meeting shall be held in May or June unless otherwise directed by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE V - BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1: The power and duty to control the property of, to conduct Society’s business, and to determine policies of the Organization shall be vested in a Board of Directors. Members of the Board of Directors are referred to herein as “Directors” or “Director.”

Section 2: The Board of Directors shall provide general guidance and explicit policy directions to the Executive Director in order to achieve the Goals and Objectives of the Organization. The Board will review the performance of the Executive Director at least annually.

Section 3: There shall be no fewer than 5 and not more than 17 Directors, including the elected officers. All Directors shall be members of the Organization in good standing. Directors shall serve without pay.

Section 4: The Board of Directors shall hold regular meetings at least six times a year, with at least one meeting per quarter. A Director shall not participate in or be present for any Board of Director discussion on a motion to vote or a vote on a matter in which that Director has an interest other than as stated in Article V, Sections 1 or 2.

Section 5: The Governance Committee (see Article VI, Section 5) shall recommend new, renewing, and returning candidates for the Board of Directors to the Board, and the Board shall elect Directors by a simple majority vote. Society members may make suggestions to the Committee for Board of Directors membership.

Section 6: Director’s term shall be three years. No later than the Board of Directors’ meeting prior to the end of a Director’s first term, the Board shall vote whether to invite them to serve a second term. A maximum of two consecutive three-year terms may be served. There shall be at least a one-year break in service after two consecutive three-year terms are served before a Director is eligible to reapply for election to a new term.

Section 7: The Board of Directors shall have the power to remove any officer or director from office by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the entire Board, excluding the person who is the subject of the vote, for any reason that supports the effective governance of the Organization including but not limited to failure to attend meetings, undisclosed conflict of interest, unlawful conduct, failure to follow the Birds Connect Seattle code of conduct, or unacceptable behavior by the Director in interactions with members, staff, or other Directors. Additionally, if a Director misses three meetings, or more than one meeting without advance notice, within a calendar year, they may be asked to step down from the Board of Directors.

Section 8: Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the President or by any five or more Directors. At least five days’ notice of any special meeting shall be given to each Director.

Section 9: A majority of the total number of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the conduct of any business. In the absence of a quorum no formal action may be taken by the Directors. A majority of the Directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be sufficient for an act of the Board, unless a greater number is required by law. A Board vote may be conducted in any manner that is consistent with the laws of Washington State, including by electronic transmission. In the event of a vote on a proposal by electronic transmission, the text of each proposal to be so voted upon must be set forth in the electronic transmission seeking such a vote, as well as the deadline to submit a response. No action may be taken pursuant to an electronic vote unless and until at least two thirds of the Directors have submitted their votes for each such proposal.

Section 10: The Board of Directors shall at all times have an Executive Committee consisting of the elected officers of the Organization as described below in Article VI, and may include the Immediate Past President provided they are still a board member.

The Executive Committee shall: approve volunteer Chairs of all committees (except Governance and Finance) to serve for no more than two consecutive three-year terms. Prior to the end of a Chair’s first term, the Executive Committee shall vote whether to invite them to serve a second term. Governance and Finance are chaired by the Vice-President and the Treasurer, respectively (see Article VI, section 4).

The Executive Committee shall carry out additional instructions as set forth by the Board of Directors and shall also act on matters of urgency between Board meetings in the event that immediate action is required and calling a special meeting is impractical, impossible, or inadequate. All actions of the Executive Committee shall be made in good faith and shall be reported to the full Board at the next Board meeting.

ARTICLE VI – BOARD OFFICERS

Section 1: The officers of the Organization shall be President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer. All officers shall be Directors.

Section 2: The officers shall be elected by the Board of Directors for a term of two years. With approval of the Board, an officer's two-year term may be extended for the duration of their service on the Board of Directors, with the exception of the President, whose term as an Officer may not be so extended.
Section 3: The Governance Committee (see Article VI, section 5) shall prepare a slate of one or more candidates for each office of the Organization. Officers will be voted into their positions individually by the Board of Directors at the last board meeting of each fiscal year.

Section 4: The duties of each of the Officers shall be:

a. President. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors and shall be responsible for providing broad leadership and direction to the organization and for arranging meetings of the Board.

b. Vice-President. The Vice-President shall preside at all meetings in the absence of the President and otherwise shall assist the President in the carrying out of the President’s duties. The Vice-President shall chair the Governance Committee.

c. Secretary. The Secretary shall create and maintain all business meeting minutes of the Board of Directors. An electronic record of the minutes of the Board’s meeting shall be provided to the Board one week before the next Board meeting. Also, the Secretary shall create and maintain a Board Roster.

d. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall make a financial report at Board meetings and shall make a copy of the annual financial report available to the public in the Organization's annual report.

The Treasurer shall be assisted by a Finance Committee, which shall be chaired by the Treasurer. Persons authorized to make financial transactions on behalf of the Organization shall be approved by the Board.

ARTICLE VII – EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Section 1: The Executive Director (E.D.) will be appointed after a search has been conducted and a candidate presented for selection by the Board.

Section 2: The E.D. shall be generally knowledgeable in the disciplines and activities of Program Committees, finance, communication, funding, and personnel. The E.D. reports to the Board and receives his/her annual performance evaluation from the Personnel Committee.

Section 3: The E.D. hires and guides the staff, directs day-to-day operations, and longer-term activities that support the goals and objectives of the Organization.

Section 4: The E.D. conducts (or instructs staff managers to conduct) written annual evaluations for each staff member under his/her supervision.

Section 5: The E.D. submits to the Board for the forthcoming fiscal year, the priorities and intended outcomes to advance the Organization’s strategic plan and provides regular progress updates at regular Board meetings or as required. The Treasurer and E.D. submit a detailed annual proposed budget to the Board for the forthcoming financial year and submit financial reports at regular Board meetings or as required.

ARTICLE VIII – STAFF

Professional staff are hired to work with committees and to advance the Organization’s approved strategic and financial plan. Staff members shall be responsible for developing and directing volunteer personnel in the execution of projects and activities. They report directly to the E.D., who provides guidance, approval, and supervision.

ARTICLE IX – STANDING, PROGRAM AND AD HOC COMMITTEES

Section 1: The Standing Committees and their functions shall be as follows:

A. Development: It shall be the duty of the Development Committee to advise and assist the Board in raising funds for the use of the Organization and in cultivating and maintaining relationships with donors. The committee will be staffed by the Development Director.

B. Finance: It shall be the duty of the Finance Committee to provide information and recommendations to the Board of Directors regarding the Organization’s finances, and to facilitate and ensure the review of the books and accounting systems of the Organization. The Finance Committee shall also ensure that an annual review is performed by a certified professional auditor. The committee will be staffed by the Executive Director and accounting staff person.

C. Communications: It shall be the duty of the Communications Committee to provide thought leadership and guidance to the Board of Directors regarding the Organization’s public image and brand perception. The Communications Committee shall also ensure that the Organization’s usage of branded assets such as logos and external-facing communication meet the ethical and professional standards consistent with the Audubon brand and value.

D. Personnel: It shall be the duty of the Personnel Committee to conduct an annual evaluation of the Executive Director, to provide guidance on personnel policies, and to consult with Executive Director and President when personnel problems arise.

E. Governance: It shall be the duty of the Governance Committee to i) periodically review and recommend new or modified policies and practices to enhance the quality and viability of the Organization’s Board of Directors, ii) recommend new Board candidates for approval by the Board, consistent with Article V, section 5, iii) prepare an officer slate of candidates, consistent with Article VI, section 3; iv) develop and oversee Board orientation and evaluation. The Organization’s Vice-President shall chair the Governance Committee (see Article VI, section 4b).
Section 2: The Program Committees and their functions shall be as follows:

A. Conservation: It shall be the duty of the Conservation Committee to keep informed on local, regional, state, and national legislative and governmental administrative matters and on private actions affecting the conservation of wildlife, plants and their habitats. The Committee advises the Board of Directors and the members of its findings, and acts for the Board and members in presenting the views of the Organization to agencies, individuals, and the public on such matters. Conservation staff and committee members will identify potential partners, including Audubon Washington and National Audubon Society. The Conservation Manager will staff the committee.

B. Education: It shall be the duty of the Education Committee to promote and support educational activities and programs conducted by the Organization. The Education Manager will staff the committee.

C. Science: It shall be the duty of the Science Committee to work cooperatively with other regional organizations and agencies to improve scientific knowledge of birds and their habitats. The Science Manager will staff the committee.

Section 3: Committee governance shall be as follows: Committee Chairs are nominated and approved according to Article V, Section 10. With respect to their Committees, Committee Chairs are bound by the same provisions as the Board of Directors regarding removal (Article V, Section 7) and recusal (Article V, Section 4).

A. Each Standing and Program Committee shall have a Vice-Chair, who shall be included as a candidate to replace the Chair when that vacancy occurs.

B. Standing and Program Committee members and Vice-Chairs shall be appointed by the Committee Chair, who shall consider input from the Executive Director and President (in the case of Standing Committees) and from the Executive Director and Program Staff Manager (in the case of Program Committees). Ad Hoc or Special Committee members shall be appointed by the relevant Committee Chair and President. All Chairs shall provide a list of current Committee members to the Executive Director and Board of Directors.

C. All Program and Standing Committees shall have a charter, which is drafted and updated as needed within two months of the start of each fiscal year by the Committee, and which is approved by the Board. All Program and Standing Committees may form subcommittees, without input or approval from the Executive Committee or Board, to further the Committee’s charter or priorities.

D. All Program and Standing Committees shall determine their priorities within two months of the start of each fiscal year. Priorities shall be within the scope of the relevant committee’s charter, and shall support the Organization’s priorities and budget as approved by the Board of Directors. The relevant Committee Chair shall provide an informational copy of priorities to the Board of Directors, which shall require revisions only if not aligned with the relevant Committee charter or the Organization’s priorities and budget.

ARTICLE X - MARTIN MILLER COMMITTEE

Section 1: It shall be the duty of the Finance Committee to administer the “Martin Miller Wildlife Sanctuary Fund” in accordance with the terms of the Last Will and Testament of Martin B. Miller, dated December 18, 1985, and with applicable court orders. The Martin Miller Wildlife Sanctuary Fund shall consist of the funds received from the Martin Miller estate for the sole purpose of, and restricted to, providing earnings to acquire habitats to be protected in perpetuity for plants, animals, birds and fish and their ecosystems.

Section 2: It shall be the duty of the Martin Miller Habitat Selection Committee to manage the Martin Miller Wildlife Sanctuary Fund by: (1) Establishing criteria for, (2) developing a project proposal format for, (3) using a documented ranking selection process, and (4) recommending distribution of earnings from the Martin Miller Wildlife Sanctuary Fund. This committee shall have a minimum of seven members selected by the Board of Directors for their expert ability to select habitat projects. Committee member's terms shall be 6 years, with the exception of a Board vote to extend on a yearly basis. All meetings of this committee shall be announced and open to Society members.

ARTICLE XI – CHANGES AND AMENDMENTS TO BYLAWS

Amendments to the Organization’s By-laws may be proposed by a majority of the Board of Directors. Amendments shall be adopted by the affirmative vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the Board of Directors subject to the requirements of Article V, Section 9.

ARTICLE XII - INDEMNIFICATION

To the full extent permitted by law, Birds Connect Seattle shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be named a party to any civil, criminal, administrative or investigative action, suit or proceeding (whether brought by or in the right of Birds Connect Seattle or otherwise) by reason of the fact that they are or was a Director or Officer of Birds Connect Seattle, or is or was serving at the request of Birds Connect Seattle as a Director or Officer of another corporation, against expenses, including attorney’s fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement of any action, suit or proceeding; and the Board may, at any time, approve indemnification of any person which Birds Connect Seattle has power to indemnify under the Washington Non-profit Corporation Act.

However, this indemnification provision shall not apply to matters as to which he/she shall be adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of duties. This indemnification shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which a person may be entitled under any by-law agreement, vote of the Board of Directors, or as a matter of law or by contract, or otherwise.

ARTICLE XIII – FISCAL YEAR

The Organization’s fiscal year shall run from July 1 to June 30th of the following year.

/END/